Huntington's disease symptoms may include physical, cognitive and emotional changes. Children of a parent with HD may require emotional support from HDAI's Family Support Officer. HDAI also refers young people from HD families to accredited counsellors when required.

Huntington's Disease Association of Ireland is committed to the safety and wellbeing of children and young people with whom we come in contact as part of our service. It is our responsibility to ensure they are safeguarded from harm. HDAI staff are appropriately vetted by HDAI and are Garda Vetted and made aware of HDAI's code of practice to protect children. Furthermore, all staff complete the necessary training in relation to Child Safeguarding. HDAI's Child Protection Policy Document provides information and best practice in relation to the following:

3. Risk Assessment

We have carried out an assessment of any potential for harm to a child while availing of our services. Below is a list of the areas of risk identified and the list of procedures for managing these risks.

	Risk identified	Procedure in place to manage identified risk
1	Risk of harm to a young person being left alone with a HDAI staff member	Staff are vetted and are fully aware of HDAI's Safeguarding Statement
2	Risk of harm to a young person attending counselling funded by HDAI	Accredited counsellors are Garda Vetted and aware of HDAI's Safeguarding Statement. A Counsellor is a Mandated Person as defined by The Children First Act 2015

The Board and Staff of Huntington's Disease Association of Ireland, in undertaking this Risk Assessment, have endeavoured to identify as far as possible the risks of harm that are relevant to HDAI and to ensure that adequate procedures are in place to manage all risks identified. While it is not possible to foresee and remove all risks of harm, HDAI has in place the procedures listed in this Risk Assessment to manage and reduce risk to the greatest possible extent.
